General Asks Why Congress Did Not Put Real Force Into Measure Jammed Through During Closing Hours.

Special to The Courier.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A sensational and important suggestion in connection with the Federal child labor law was made by former Secretary of State P. C. Knox in his speech at the Star Casino here last night. Mr. Knox raised the question whether since Congress had assumed jurisdiction over child labor, the Federal law did not supersede and nullify the state laws upon the subject.

While not himself arguing that this was the case, he cited a decision by Justice Lamar of the United States Supreme Court which apparently sustained the point. Mr. Knox pointed out that if the Senate held that Congress has jurisdiction over the subject, the laws of Pennsylvania, New York and other states will have no effect and the mild and ineffective Federal law will prevail.

This suggestion, coming from Mr. Knox, who as Attorney General, testified that the Sherman law was broad enough to prevent monopolies in restraint of trade, and afterward proved it by winning the Norris case, the most important suit for the government, is sure to attract wide attention.

Referring to the child labor law, Mr. Knox said:

"It is obvious that Congress either has or has not power to protect the children of the country from unreasonable hours of employment or from employment at all. I do not propose to argue that it has not such power. It has in a most peculiar way asserted the power and we must accept the rightfulness of that assertion until it has been declared by the Supreme Court of the United States to be unconstitutional. If it has the authority as it asserts, why, I ask, did it not deal directly and effectively with the subject? If Congress has the power to punish a person employing an immature child by prohibiting him from shipping his goods, interstate commerce, if such employment was within 30 days prior to the shipment, why not have imposed a more drastic and effective penalty? The power to impose a penalty at all includes the power to impose any penalty that Congress sees fit."

"It is not the children this act protects; it is the channels of interstate commerce. A brown may have been made by immature children in a factory, however unclean, unsafe and unsanitary, as there is nothing in the law to protect children against such conditions, but if the children are employed within 30 days the brown is penalized by being denied the privilege of going out of the state. After 30 days it may go forth upon its journey in a car which Congress has required to be equipped with safety appliances and paying only such fare as Congress has stipulated through a commission created for that purpose."

T. R. HITS HARDHammers Wilson Supporters Who Try to Heel Him.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 29.—Colonel Roosevelt blasted President Wilson verbally with pitiless scorn through Missouri and Kansas yesterday. When ever a man in the crowd shouted "Hurrah for Wilson," and usually at least one of the President's admirers was found in each town, perched on top of a freight car, the Colonel turned to face him squarely. He tightened the Roosevelt lips until the Roosevelt teeth gleamed savagely; his voice became a withering snarl and his face flushed with anger.

"That's right, cheer for Woodrow," the Colonel cried. "Then, you with the spirit of cowardice in your heart, cheer also for the dead babies on the Lusitania. Cheer for the murdered men and women in Mexico. Cheer for Floyd and Adair, murdered in the presence of their troops at Carlisle. That is the cheer for a man who is too proud to fight."

MORE HUNTERS LICENSED.This Year's Figures Show 413 More Than Last Year at This Time.

A year ago on October 29, 3,055 hunters' licenses had been issued in Fayette county. The count for 1916 up to this morning was 3,258 or 203 in excess of last year's record.

It is estimated that the total issued will run over 4,000 more than last year.

Wilson to Be Heard.

President Wilson will carry for five minutes in Connellsville on the evening of Friday, October 27, on his way back to Shaw Lawn from the west. The schedule calls for his arrival here at 5:30 P. M.

WORKMAN BOARDS
PRESIDENTS' AUTO*Attempt to Attack Wilson in Pittsburg
Is Frustrated; President and Bryan Find Confab.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 29.—During President Wilson's ride through Pittsburg his machine was boarded by a man, apparently a workman, as he carried a bag of tools, who was promptly knocked from the running board by a secret service man. The President's machine was standing still while another secret service operative was recovering Mr. Wilson's hat, which had blown off. Gathering himself together, the man chased the President's car for a block before he was arrested by detectives.

The prisoner gave the name of Richard Cullen, aged 22, a machinist of this city. He told the police that he was not at all satisfied with President Wilson's conduct in the European War. In the bag he carried a knife with a blade five inches long and a bottle of some liquid the police are now endeavoring to analyze. Also in the bag were several wooden chisels. Cullen is being held by the police for observation.

HOPWOOD TALKS
TO YOUNG MEN*Household Meeting Is Held at Uniontown; Officers Are Elected.

Congressman R. F. Hopwood addressed a rousing meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club in Uniontown last night. The club formally launched its campaign in behalf of Charles E. Hughes and also elected officers for the coming year. The officers named were S. Ray Shelby, president; Cameron J. McClair, vice president; and Darrell W. Smiley, treasurer.

Former Sheriff Peter A. Johns was a conspicuous figure at the meeting. Mr. Johns was a delegate to the Progressive convention which assembled at Hotelsville in 1912, and has taken an active part in Bull Moose affairs. Like the great majority of his fellow Progressives, he is once more back in the fold and is an enthusiastic Hughes supporter.

Congressman Hopwood urged the members of the club to work for Hughes and the entire Republican ticket. He reiterated his belief in the protective tariff and Republican principles. Other speakers were S. Ray Shelby, Luan V. Phillips and County Chairman M. A. Klefer.

The club will send a delegation in the opening rally of the campaign which will be held at Masonstown tomorrow evening. It promises to be one of the largest political meetings that has ever been held in Masonstown.

OPPOSES FEDERAL RAILROADS.

New York Banker Says Government Ownership Would Be Tragical.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Government ownership of railroads would be a tragedy, Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City Bank of New York told the Society of Railway Financial Officers here today.

He said exclusive federal control would not solve railway difficulties and that selfishness of the public stockholders, wage earners and politicians is the chief trouble with the railroads.

In Wrecked Shaft, But Companions
Rescued When Brought to Surface;
Bodies of Four Have Been Found.

By Associated Press.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Oct. 29.—L. M. Jones, a mining engineer sent to Barrackville yesterday in charge of a trained crew from the Pittsburg station of the Bureau of Mines to conduct the work of rescue at the Jamison mine, where more than a dozen men had been entombed by an explosion, was asphyxiated in the workings early today.

Jones, with seven other men, had reached the bottom of the shaft, where canary birds were released to test the air. All the birds were almost immediately killed, and Jones, who had advanced further into the workings, also fell to the tracks. His companions, advancing to his rescue, felt the force of the gas and one by one dropped. When they did not return to the surface another party entered the mine and brought them to the surface. All quickly recovered, except Jones, who had apparently died in the mine.

The work of exploring the mine continued during the early hours of the day and soon after 4 o'clock the body of Wilson Vance, assistant electrician, who was at work in the mine when the explosion occurred, was brought out.

Three other bodies were recovered. These men, the rescue party said, had died from the gas, as their bodies bore no marks of the explosion.

The Jamison mine was in charge of Earl Beerbower, a brother of R. C. Beerbower, superintendent of the H. C. Frick coke works at Davidson, Adair and Coalbrook. The latter left last evening for Fairmont to assist his brother in rescue work. He had not arrived home up to noon.

John Maloy, former pit boss at Davidson, was a foreman at the Barrackville mine. He came out of the mine only a few minutes before the explosion occurred.

Both Superintendent Beerbower and Foreman Maloy are well known in this section of the coke region.

The work of recovering the bodies from the mine has been stopped by orders of state mine officials owing to the gaseous condition. Air is being pumped into the mine and it is believed the work will be resumed tomorrow.

The other members of the rescuing party which penetrated into the mine were L. M. Jones and were overcome by the fumes were: J. Koster, J. Strain, L. Sipe, J. B. Berry and G. S. McKayall of Pittsburg and L. W. Cooper, the latter the assistant engineer of the Jamison Coal Company of Fairmont. The party penetrated one half mile into the mine. The fire, which was in the hoisting shaft, has been extinguished.

The Buffington first aid team of the H. C. Frick Coke Company was brought to Barrackville to aid the rescuers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Louis M. Jones, mining engineer and rescuer of the bureau of mines, killed while engaged in rescue work at the Barrackville mine is the fourth government expert to lose his life in an attempt to save entombed miners, Jones lived in Pittsburg and was born in Cleveland, Minn. Director Manning of the bureau said today that Jones' death was a great loss as he was regarded as one of the most able men in directing rescue work.

"Mr. Jones had been an important factor in the development of rescue work," said Director Manning. "He dies a martyr to the cause like three other rescuers of the bureau have died. Under the chief mining engineer of the bureau, Mr. Jones had charge of the experimental mine of the bureau at Bruceton, Pa. He developed many safeguards that are not only saving lives in the coal mines today, but will be instrumental in saving thousands of lives in the future. The fact that the death rate among miners last year was the lowest in the last 16 years emphasizes the work of Mr. Jones' efforts."

John Bell of Pittsburg, architect of the First Presbyterian Church pipe organ, came to Connellsville this morning to inspect the big instrument preparatory to its overhauling and tuning.

NEW WAGE BOOST
WITHOUT INQUIRY IS DUE TO WILSON.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Negro waiters employed at the Press Club utilized the presence of President Wilson at lunch there to gain for themselves a raise in wages without investigation and without compromise.

Just before the President was due to arrive, 20 special waiters who were to serve the luncheon put on their coats preparatory to walking out. They had not asked for more pay, but when stopped by the steward, told him they had decided they must have a 50 per cent increase on the condition that all waiters would begin their duties. The advantage was theirs and the increase was granted.

GUARDSMEN WILL FACE ARMY TESTS*Physical Examination Priorities to Mustering Out Is Scheduled to Begin This Afternoon.

Notice went out last night to all members of Company D, Tenth Regiment, and the Regimental Hospital Corps to present themselves at the state armory at 1 o'clock this afternoon when a surgeon from the regular army would begin physical examinations of all guardsmen who recently returned from the Mexican border. It was stated that the men would be mustered out within the next week.

All during the morning guardsmen who had scattered to their homes during the week for finding their regular homes from El Paso, Texas, began congregating and by 1 o'clock Captain R. S. Morton had a full company at the armory. All were in uniform and ready not only for the physical examination but to make an accounting of the federal equipment now in their possession.

The hospital corps under Dr. R. S. McKee was also ready, the baggage car containing its equipment having arrived yesterday. It was unloaded at once and checked up.

Captain Morton expects that the examinations will be conducted by Major George Smith of the United States Medical Service. He has received no word to this effect, but indications are, he says, that this officer will be assigned to Connellsville. Major Scott did not arrive at 1 o'clock, as expected.

COLD WAVE COMINGWeather Man's Prediction for Week-End Is Not Cheerful.

The weather man's noonday outlook is full of predictions for tonight. "Cloudy and much colder, with rain probably turning to snow in northern portion" is his cheerful announcement. Saturday, he says, will be partly cloudy and much colder, with south to west gales.

A cold wave is said to be heading northward and scheduled to be in Connellsville's midst by early evening. It will be unwelcome because the rain of last night was followed by an ideal autumn day with the mercury hovering in the high 70's throughout the morning.

By an old confidence temperature for today and October 30 last year are almost identical. Yesterday the high mark was 73 and the low mark 61. A year ago 73 was also high record and 62 the low spot.

During the last few days have raised theough river to over four feet.

Snow in Illinois.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Snow and freezing temperature struck Illinois today. The earliest snow in years fell in the eastern part of the state accompanied by a drop in temperature of 32 degrees.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Extremely turbulent conditions in Athens on Wednesday night are reported in a dispatch from Reuters' correspondent at the Greek capital, sent that evening. Greek reservists have taken the law in their own hands, despite the presence of strong Entente detachments of marines, who are given virtually no assistance by the Greek authorities in maintaining order, the dispatch declares.

Twenty-five officers and 500 men of the Athens garrison have gone over to the National movement, and left for Saloniki according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens. Newspapers announce, adds the message, that Janina, in Greek Epirus, also has gone over to the revolution, but official confirmation of this is lacking.

REDOUBTS ARE ROMBERDED.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The following official account of operations on the French front was given out here today:

"Last evening Staff and Schwaben redoubts were heavily shelled. During the night two small raids were carried out against the enemy trenches in the neighborhood of Loos."

SERBIANS ROY BULGARIANS.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The war office announced today that the Serbians have captured the plateau and village of Volosko, on the western end of the Macedonian front, putting the Bulgarians to rout.

The statement says heavy losses were inflicted on the Bulgarians. The Serbians captured one hundred Bulgarians and three cannons.

CRUDE OIL ADVANCESAgain Reaches Record Price in a 10-Cent Advance.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 29.—Crude oil went back to its record price here today when the principal purchasing agencies at the opening of the market announced an advance of 10 cents a barrel on all grades but Ragland which was advanced 5 cents. The new prices are: Pennsylvania, crude, $2.60; Cannel, $2.12; Mercer, black, Corning and New Castle, $2.10; Somerset, $1.95; Ragland, 90 cents.

Refiners said it was impossible to get the required quantity of these grades of crude and the price had again been raised in the hope of increasing the supply. Producers were openly talking $3 for Pennsylvania crude when they heard of the new quotations and others connected with oil industry were inclined to agree with them.

SHORT GAS MEASURE.Pumps in Many Sections Are Helping Defend the Autolite.

Special to The Courier.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Short measuring gasoline pumps, according to an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Standards, are misreading millions of dollars a year. In Illinois alone the loss is not less than $300,000 a year.

Tests in many cities have confirmed previous conclusions and actual tests of the types of pumps used by retailers here have been shown 80 per cent of them to give short measure for various reasons. Some of them are faults of construction and others are susceptible to manipulation by the dealer.

CAR SHORTAGE SERIOUSOhio Mines Only Working About Three Days a Week.

Special to The Courier.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 29.—John Moore, president of the Ohio miners, today declared that the mines of Ohio are producing only from 40 to 60 per cent of the tonnage of coal possible to be produced because of lack of coal cars.

The shortage and resultant high prices, Moore said, was due entirely to the car shortage. Some of the mines are working only three days a week.

A FORMER CHIEF
SHOOTS HIMSELF*Anton Steff Is Found in Home at Mount Pleasant With Bullet Hole in Abdomen.

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Oct. 29.—Anton Steff, former chief of police of this place, was found in bed with a bullet hole in his abdomen by police officers who were attracted to his Depot street home late last night by the sound of a shot. Mr. Steff refused to say why he had attempted suicide, but he begged Dr. S. M. Crosby, who had been summoned, to shoot him again as he wanted to die. He was taken to the Memorial Hospital, where it was said his condition was very grave. His injury is so serious that physicians have been unable to probe for the bullet.

Chief of Police John Nugent and Patrolman William Ong were at the lower end of town when they heard a shot fired, followed by loud screams. They traced to the Depot street home of Steff. Entering the kitchen they found Steff in bed, suffering from a bullet wound. The bullet had pierced the bedclothing. He told the police that he had shot himself. Steff was police chief three years ago.

ASSISTANT CHIEF
GETS INSURANCE*Compensation Will be Allowed Bowers,
Off Duty for Weeks With a Broken Ankle.

Assistant Chief of Police W. B. Bowers will receive compensation for injuries suffered at his home on Ninth street, West Side, August 9, even though the element of doubt as to whether he was on duty at that time was a strong one. Lloyd J. Shaw of Shaw & Barner has received word from the Ocean Accident & Guarantee Company that the claim will be paid without taking the matter up with the compensation insurance board.

The assistant chief left his home about 12 o'clock on August 9, but after he had gone a short distance he turned back to get something he had forgotten. While in his home he picked up his baby and while climbing down stairs with the child tripped and fell, suffering a broken ankle. The question of whether he was hurt in the course of his duties as a city police officer naturally arises. The insurance company gave the policeman the benefit of the doubt.

Mr. Bowers will receive compensation at the rate of $42.50 a month, half of his regular salary, for two months and three weeks and $25 for doctor's services.

MOTHER SERIOUSLY CHARGEDGirl Said to Have Killed Babe and Hid the Body.

Annie Nicholson, aged 27, of Stewart township, has been arrested by County Detective John Smith on a charge of infanticide. She is said to have given birth to a child on Wednesday. She is now in the Uniontown hospital in a serious condition.

The body of the babe was found at the home of a prominent Fayette county man about two and a half miles from Uniontown, where it was concealed beneath a pile of rubbish in the rear of an outbuilding. Pieces of Turkish towel had been tied several times about its neck. A postmortem is said to have proven that the child was born alive.

A deed recorded in Uniontown yesterday conveying 18.84 acres of land in Dunbar township from John D. Stevenson to the Connellsville & State Line railroad company completes part of the transaction by which the Western Maryland railroad purchased about 50 acres of land between Dunbar and Fayette station for yard purposes. The purchase price of the Stevenson tract is given as $5,181.

The deal for the purchase of about 40 acres from the Herd heirs was closed last Saturday. The Western Maryland paying the balance due on the property.

Big strides are being made by the contracting firm which is grading Herd bottom for the proposed yards. A connection between the Western Maryland tracks at Fayette and the Baltimore & Ohio, Sheepshead branch will soon be established.

HUGHES MEANT WHAT HE SAID ABOUT THE LUSITANIA SINKING

Replies to Thrust of Secretary McAdoo at Youngstown Meeting.

HE DENOUNCES BAKER'S TALK

War Secretary's Comparison of Washington's Heroes at Valley Forge With Villa's Bandits Declared Shameful by Republican Nominee.

Special to The Courier.

YOUNGSTOWN, Oct. 20.—Charles F. Hughes, replying to the thrust of Secretary McAdoo's statement that he meant what he said in his speech at Valley Forge, declared today that the comparison of the heroes of the American Revolution with the bandits of the Mexican Revolution was a shameful thing.

He also replied to a statement attributed to Secretary of War Baker in a recent speech in which Washington's soldiers in the march to Valley Forge in the days of the American Revolution were said to be just as bad characters as the Mexicans.

"I never supposed the day would come," Mr. Hughes said, "when the representative of an American administration would say that of those who have our liberties."

"Recently we have had illuminating utterances from two of the most important of the spokesmen of the administration—two cabinet ministers. The secretary of the Treasury finds fault with my answer to the question about the sinking of the Lusitania. He says that I did not say what I would have done after the sinking. You may recall that I stated specifically the position I would have taken in advance and the notice I would have given of the action I should take and I added that with this position unequivocally stated in advance, and backed by a convincing administration record, the ship would not have been sunk."

"Now rises the Secretary of the Treasury to complain that this was not a statement of what I would have done had the Lusitania not sunk. But I was under the impression that when I said what I would have stated in advance as to what I would do, everyone would know that I stated what in fact I would have done in the described event. The Secretary's remark shows in an illuminating way this administration's conception of the statute of words."

"It apparently seems impossible to this administration that one can mean what he says. That is its difficulty. With it a threat of action does not seem to mean anything but words. My position is somewhat different. I mean what I say and because I mean what I say and because I mean what I say, I would have already had a reputation for firm and correct policies. I repeat that the Lusitania would not have been sunk."

"But the most remarkable exhibition of the spirit of the administration is to the recent statement of the Secretary of War. He is reported to have said—and I do not understand that he has denied the statement, as reported: 'I know that the Mexicans do not respect American life and property. I know that they do not pay their debts, that they are rapacious, that they are generally worthless. But people never respect these things in revolution. We did not respect them in our Civil War. Washington's soldiers in the march to Valley Forge stole everything they could get their hands on, took the silver vessels out of the churches and sold them to buy drink. They drove ministers out of the churches. Their money was worthless and they were just as bad characters as the Mexicans.'"

"An administration imbued with the spirit of true Americanism would be incapable of the statement attributed to the Secretary of War. It must bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every American that apologizes for the

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Get a 25-cent bottle of Dandruff at any drug store, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If Peevish, Feverish and Sick, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Mother: Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-aches, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given. Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's use. Give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep a handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 25-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

Mrs. Hughes' speech here last night was the last of his third Presidential campaign trip. He left here at 11 P. M. for New York, where he is due today. The day was spent traveling, with three short addresses at Day City, Sugarcreek and Flint, Mich. It was raining and the damp weather affected the nominee's voice.

PITTSBURG TO CELEBRATE

Three Days Set Aside to Commemorate Incorporation Centennial.

Merchants and business men from this community will attend the centennial celebration of the incorporation of the city of Pittsburgh on the invitation of the Trade Extension Committee of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce. The excursion will be held from November 1 to 3 and the railroad fare of the participants will be refunded through a discount offered by Pittsburgh manufacturers and wholesale dealers.

On the evening of November 1 the out of town visitors will be the guests of the centennial committee in a specially reserved section of the great grandstand at Forbes Field to witness the historical pageant. On November 2 they will see the military band and civic parade which gives promise of the greatest street demonstration ever held in Pittsburgh.

COAL EXPORTS DECREASE

Shipments from American and British Ports to Brazil Fall Off.

Imports of American coal at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, for July, 1916, amounted to 39,510 metric tons of 2,204.5 pounds each, compared with 79,063 tons during the corresponding month of 1915.

Receipts of British coal during the same period were 5,075 tons compared with 15,087 last year. Total imports of coal for July were 44,584 tons compared with 54,591 tons in July, 1915.

Anthracite Shipments.

A fall of 118,981 tons in shipment of anthracite coal was reported for September, the output reaching 5,662,167 tons. For the calendar year to September 30 shipments increased 1,373,478 tons over the same period of 1915.

Most Effective Remedy Mother Had Ever Used

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieves Baby When Other Medicines Failed.

There is nothing so necessary to a child's health and comfort as regularity of the bowels. All children are especially susceptible to stomach trouble, and any overstrain of the sensitive organs has a tendency to obstruct elimination. This condition is responsible for much of the illness of childhood.

To relieve constipation a mild laxative should be employed. Cathartics and purgatives are violent to the system and should be avoided. Mrs. Alfred Du Bois, Mr. Holly, N. J., says: "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is without doubt the most effective remedy for constipation I have ever used and that it is the only remedy which could find for my baby. Little Earl was badly constipated during his first year and nothing else tried seemed to help. In fact he got a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Now he is a fine, strong, healthy boy, and she thanks Dr. Caldwell for it."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, free from opiates or narcotic drugs. It acts gently without gripping or other discomfort, and appeals to children because of its pleasant taste. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle, and every mother should have it in the home for use whenever occasion arises.

To avoid irritations and ineffective substitutes always be sure to ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" Ends All Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

Time! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out of order stomach surely within five minutes. If your meals don't sit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.

DUGGAN CASE IS NON SUITED

After Four Hours' Argument Judge Van Swearingen Declines for Defendants.

After four hours' argument yesterday afternoon, Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen ordered a compulsory nonsuit in the case of John Duggan, Sr., and his son, Herbert Duggan, against the West Penn for a total of $7,000 damages for injuries suffered by the latter in a trolley collision at Wheeler in 1914. Attorney L. B. Brownfield for the West Penn asked for a nonsuit on the grounds of contributory negligence, after the plaintiffs had closed their case at 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon. The court granted this after the entire afternoon was taken up with arguments of both sides. Herbert Duggan asked $3,000 damages for personal injuries and his father $3,000 for damages to the car and $1,000 for his son's injuries.

CHURCH SUIT ON

Episcopalians Defend Title to Property on the West Side.

Special to The Courier.
UNIONTOWN, Oct. 20.—Before Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen today the trial of the ejectment suit of James A. Voeh and 17 other heirs of the late Mary Mason against the board of trustees for the diocese of Pittsburg of the Episcopal Church was resumed. The Mason heirs are seeking to eject the Trinity Episcopal Church of Conneville from possession of the old church in the West Side, which is now being rented to a colored Baptist congregation.

The church, in defending the suit, claims that the congregation had no possession of the property since 1882.

The damage suit of Alfred Mayhugh, Jr., of Jeannette, against Anos Grant Abrams and William Henderson Jones, partners doing business as Abrams & Jones, was tried today before Judge E. H. Reppert. Mayhugh is seeking to recover $2,000 damages for injuries to his right hand. It was alleged by Mayhugh that he was employed by the defendants who were drilling a gas well in the Baughman plan of lots, Hempfield township, Westmoreland county, and on December 17, 1914, while working on the derrick, his right hand was drawn into a tackle block and seriously injured. He alleged that he was inexperienced in such work, and never had been given any instructions by his employers.

This Hoosier Cabinet Cuts Work in Half Stop Being a Slave to Your Kitchen

Nothing wears a woman out so quickly as kitchen work. Many a woman has lost her health and strength through toiling long hours in the kitchen when she could have had her work done in half the time with the Hoosier Cabinet.

This marvel of convenience has places for 400 articles, all within arm's reach—a centralized store-house with 40 labor-saving inventions! Some cabinets have copied a few of them, but 17 of these Hoosier features can't be found in all other cabinets combined.

The Vital Part of Your Kitchen Cabinet

The picture above shows the section of your cabinet that is most important.

Storage space is above and below; the articles most often used are placed where they are easiest reached.

There is plenty of unhampered room above and around the aluminum (or porcelain) work-table.

There are no useless little partitions to chop up the space and leave no room for work. Your cabinet must have big table space to work on. The Hoosier gives it.

Come See These Six Exclusive Hoosier Features!

- 1—The all-metal glass front flour bin.
- 2—The gear-driven shaker flour sifter—makes flour light and fluffy.
- 3—Scientific arrangement—articles needed most frequently easiest reached.
- 4—Revolving caster (shown in center of illustration).
- 5—The ingenious, big-capacity sugar bin—holds more than twice as much as most other bins.
- 6—Finally, the doors that roll back at the sides of the cabinet, entirely out of the way.

MOUNT PLEASANT IS HARD HIT BY THE MOUNTAIN STORM

Buildings in the Duncan Plant Damaged by the Wind.

NEW ONE MUST BE REBUILT

Framework is so badly twisted it must be taken apart. Crossed
Wires Came a Fire in the Millin
House, But It is Quickly Put Out.

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Oct. 20.—During the heavy storm that swept the town Wednesday night and yesterday morning, thereof was blown from the new part of the building for the L. E. Smith Glass Company. This is a very substantial building and would soon have been completed. Vault lights will be made at the new factory.

S. J. Smaker of Bridgeport had the contract for a building on the Duncan farm close to the Smith factory. A wind lifted the frame, which was already up, and twisted it on its foundation. When completed the plan is to be a store and dwelling. All of the boards will have to be taken apart to be used again. The win was direct from the mountain and swept the hill where these buildings were.

Tree crossed and set fire to the box of Charles Mullin on North Church street. Miss Genevieve Mullin, a daughter of Charles Mullin, discovered the fire and rushed to where several buckets of water are kept for fire purposes, and put out the fire. Lots were blown down on the outhouses in fences blown down on the Mullin farm.

WOMEN MOBBED A WILSON TALKS

Their "best demonstration" gets Rough Handling from Chicago
Enthusiast of Democracy.

Special to The Courier.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—President Wilson cut here yesterday to explain his views on problems facing the nation. Arrived in Chicago, after shaking hands with crowds in Indiana, he delivered more speeches, participated in several street demonstrations, and set over his western campaign plans with his managers. He left here at 10:15 last night.

Anticipated "silent demonstration" by members of the National Women's Party front of the auditorium developed into a near riot in which the banners opposing Wilson were torn from the demonstrators and trampled and women were roughly handled. President Wilson was seated in an automobile a few hundred feet away when the demonstration started, but paid into the building and was not a witness to the scene that followed.

outing "shame," "disgrace," and "the banners," a crowd of several hundred, sprinkled with women, charged banner holders, umbrellas and was used in the destruction of placards. Many of the women were knocked down and nearly all were badly handled, especially those who rose to retain their banners. The excitement continued until all banners had been seized. With sheveled hair and soiled and torn clothing, the women marched back to their headquarters under police guard.

Charges that the police sympathized with the rioters and failed to protect the demonstrators were made by Mrs. Josephine Pearce and Mrs. E. L. Matice, officials of the local women's Republican clubs.

Members of the Congressional union occupied the scene at the demonstration with the suffrage parade in Washington the day before President Wilson was inaugurated. "The disgraceful attack upon the suffrage demonstration is similar to the attack by mobs upon the great suffrage parade. Mr. Wilson is unfortunately that he runs the risk of going out of office the same time as which he entered," said Mrs. A. H. Olson, Minnesota state chairman of the Congressional Union.

Miss Alice Paul, national chairman of the Congressional Union, characterized it as an attack by Democrats. "The violent attack by Democrats upon the demonstration shows the CONFERENCE.

CONFERENCE, Oct. 20.—E. U. Brown was a business caller in Connellsville yesterday.

David Cronin was a business visitor in Somersfield and Addison yesterday.

A young cult ridden into town by Ira Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter of Johnson's Chapel, after being hitched near Black's store, in some way hung itself.

Julius McClintock of Fort Hill, was a business visitor here yesterday.

Lee Nicholson of Connellsville, is spending several days with his father, Adam Nicholson.

L. P. Shipley of Johnson's Chapel was a business caller here yesterday.

P. E. Vincent of Fort Hill, was a caller here yesterday.

Rev. Watson Bracken, the new Methodist Episcopal pastor here, has moved his family and household goods from Smithfield.

FLINN ATTACKS WILSON POLICY

Says President is an Opportunist; Quotes His Early Views in Labor and Other Issues.

Special to The Courier.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20.—William Flinn, late Progressive leader, put President Wilson in a new light in his attitude towards labor at a Hughes rally in the Fourteenth Regiment armory last night. He quoted from speeches of the President while he was in public life, to the effect that the Chinese exclusion act was intolerable because the Chinese were much superior to the Europeans that flock to this country; that labor unions brought the efficient man to the level of the incompetent and inefficient and that the nation was being brought unjustly to the feet of the servile class.

Quoting the writings and sayings of the President, Senator Flinn declared: "Of course, Mr. Wilson, if confronted with these thoughts of his, may say now that he has changed his mind. That is the trouble with him. He is unstable, unreliable, shiftless."

He is for one policy one minute and for another the next. It was his personal and party pledge of his party that he would not be a candidate for a second term, yet the sudden shifts and changes in his attitude on various questions of great importance to the nation were apparently actuated only by an ambition to succeed himself.

Charles E. Hughes was the ideal candidate of the Progressives, he said, because he had blazed the trail as a progressive as governor of New York, because he had always kept his pledge and because no man, no group or clique had ever been able to swerve him from the path of duty that actuated him.

"The best way to judge a man's future is by what he has done in the past," said Flinn, "and the Progressive voters are going to take the candidates of the two great parties at face value and vote for Hughes, who has kept every pledge he ever made in public life, as against Wilson and the Democracy, who pledged only to secure power."

Senator Flinn presided at the big meeting, which was preceded by a street parade in a driving rain. Congressman George S. Graham of Philadelphia, James Francis Burke and Congressman William H. Coleman were the other orators, each reviewing the campaign from an interesting angle.

Harvey Shipley was a business caller in Connellsville yesterday.

Coal Imports from Canada.

During the eight months ending July 31st 864,714 tons of bituminous coal were imported into the United States from Canada, as compared with 873,864 tons imported during the same period in 1915.

For your health's sake do not accept a substitute for

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

It is in a class by itself, as time has proved, and imitations that may be offered to you cannot possibly do the same amount of good.

You will always find the genuine Duffy's wrapped in Duffy's Annual, as shown in the above illustration. After the Annual is removed the well-known "Old Chemist" trade-mark is on the label and on the seal over the cork, the name of the Company is also blown in the bottle. Study the illustration and you will be able to avoid substitution.

Relieves Headache Instantly.

"I used Dr. Jones' Liniment for headache and it gave me instant relief," says Mrs. C. Havens, of Belvidere, N. J. "My three children are often troubled with ear-ache, and the application of equal parts of Dr. Jones' Liniment and olive oil always effected quick relief. We used Dr. Jones' Liniment for rheumatism, stiffness of the knee and other pains with good results." "Used fifty years. Look for the Beaver trade mark." "For sale by Laughray Drug Co., and F. H. Harmening."

TOURING SEASON WILL SOON HEAR ITS SWAN SONG

Not Many More Weeks Remains for Enjoyable Auto Trips.

SOME HOPE AS TO GOOD ROADS

About the Best That Can be Anticipated Will be a Paved Route to Uniontown; Speed Traps Continue to Flourish; Legislation is Likely.

The touring season for autos is about at an end. Not many more weeks remain for the motorists to get out into the country, for before long the roads will begin to take on their winter supply of mud and slush. So far they have remained in good condition, but if a freeze comes along before they have a chance to smooth out following the rains of the past week, there will be little more traveling, except on business.

Prospects are that Conneltsville will not be quite so badly isolated this winter as last. There are indications that the road to Uniontown will be passable throughout the cold months, as Contractor John Duggan is busy linking up the unpaved stretch between Leaning Rock and Pooker's. Beyond the Work farm there may be a bit of unpaved road, and also through Bites, but there will not be enough of it to virtually prevent all travel, as was the case last year.

There is apparently no hope north of town. Even if the Broad Ford improvements are completed, they do not cover more than half the distance between here and Scottdale. Pennsylvania is hopeless. Even if a miracle should happen, and the paving under contract be completed, the condition of the road from the Stone Bridge to Pennsylvania would prohibit travel for pleasure.

The speed trap continues to flourish in various communities. One of the worst of these is at Derry, as several local motorists well testify. Travelers will do well to keep well within the 15 mile an hour limit passing through that community. The usual fine is $10 and costs. Derry's streets are well marked, making it easy for strangers to find their way through, but that is about the best that can be said for the town.

Look out for a lot of automobile legislation when the General Assembly meets next January. The automobilists are already preparing their campaign, and it will be preceded with a special attention is likely to be directed against the speed traps. Dealers in the Pittsburgh district, it is said, are paying a heavy toll each week for "violations" of the automobile law. The speed trap, at a general rule, is not a device to encourage safe driving, but one to produce revenue in the shape of costs.

The automobile owner who drives a machine with due regard to the safety of himself and other travelers should be protected, both against grafting law officers and autoists who are neither law-abiding nor careful.

ANAEMIC PEOPLE

Need More Iron in the Blood.

If you are anemic, you need more iron in your blood, and the tell-tale symptoms are: pale face, colorless lips, aching limbs, poor circulation, and short breath, and more serious diseases are easily contracted when in this condition.

Mr. W. L. Hodges, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "I suffered from the effects of bad blood, was run-down, dizzy, had headaches, and did not feel like working. I had tried Root Iron and Wine without any help. After taking Vinol four days I noticed an improvement and its continued use built up my blood and my bad feelings disappeared like magic."

The bad effects of poor, devaluated blood cannot be overestimated, and it is the best and best liver-purifier, iron and manganese, potentiated and sublimated contained in Vinol is the blood, improves the health and in this manner health and strength. Try it.

OLD SHORTAGE IN IRON

Must Advance as Sharply as in Steel, Experts Think.

Prominent authority on the problem of iron is quoted as saying that there is a world-wide deficit in this product, and that it must advance and no doubt upward movement will be as sharp as that which took place in steel.

Production of iron in this country is insufficient to cope with foreign and domestic demand.

Italy Wants Coal.

Requests for quotations on 1,000,000 tons of coal have been received in this country from Italy.

Carefully Treat Children's Colds

Neglect of children's colds often lays the foundation of serious lung trouble. On the other hand, it is harmful to continually dose delicate little stomachs with internal medicines or to keep the children always indoors.

Fifty of fresh air in the bedroom and a good application of Vicks' Vapo-Rub® Salve over the throat and chest at the first sign of trouble, will keep the little chaps free from colds without injuring their digestion. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

CHAPTER XXI.

Morning.
COLLIE, coming from the bunk house, glanced up and saw Black Boy standing alone where his own pony had stood. This was not an invitation; this was a warning.
He rode into the canyon, but conscious of Yuma's tracks ahead of him. He rode past the tracks as they swayed toward a grassy level near the stream.
Louise stood beside the sweating Yuma, patting the pony's neck. Collie raised his eyebrows formally.
Louise was bareheaded. The clear morning sunlight enhanced her rich coloring. Against the misty gray of the canyon wall her head, in profile, as she stood beside the horse, was as delicately beautiful as that vision that imagination knows full well, but may seldom realize.
"Collie, don't say anything but that you look awfully plum. Surely not because I took Yuma."
"No. Only I was afraid for you."

"Oh, Collie, Collie, love me always!" she whispered.

"So you followed at breakneck speed to rescue the timorous, despairing, and so forth?"
"I can't joke like that this morning." "Why? I'm here, safe enough. Had breakfast?"
"Yes. I wanted to see you about something, Louise."
"All right. But you are so unusually tall and severe and judicial sitting there on Boyar. You look almost austere. Please get down. Toss a cigarette and act natural. I'm not going to scold you, etc."
"I wish you would."
"Why? What have you been doing that makes you look so ashamed of yourself? Tell me!"
"I didn't know I was."
"You don't act naturally. Is there something about me that is different? Is that it?"
"No. I wish you was different sometimes."
"You do?"
"No," he said gently. "I don't wish you were different. I want to remember you like you are."
"To remember me?"
"Yes," he whispered. "To remember you."
He seemed to see regret, astonishment, questioning, gentle reproach, even a hint of amusement in her eyes. But her expression changed instantly. "I think you have something to remember me by—something you asked me for once, long ago. I sent it to you. You have never spoken of it—acknowledged it. I can't quite forgive that."
"Your glove. I know. I got it here." And he touched his breast. "I thought you would understand."
"I do. But, Collie, a girl always likes

The claim wasn't ours."
"I didn't mean that," she said, smiling wistfully. "But you will always care for me, won't you? I don't care one bit about the claim. It has made trouble and sorrow enough. I can't remember my father. I can hardly think of him as my father. But it is horrible to think of his dying for water because he cared so much for gold."
"But how did you know?"
"I know," she answered gravely. "And I know that you are a very, very foolish boy not to trust your friends more than you do. Did you suppose you would be happier or better in leaving Moonstone ranch? Did you suppose you would be happier? Collie, you have so much to learn."
"I guess that's so," he sighed. Then his eyes brightened with his old time mischief. "Couldn't you begin now to teach me a little—like back there in the canyon?"
And, being of a decisive habit of mind, he rode close to Louise and claimed immediate and delicious instruction.
"But how did you know," he asked again, "about the claim and your father and me?"
"I know that I share with Overland," she replied.
"So he told you? When? Not last night. He was asleep when I came away this morning."
"So he is here, then?"
"Louise, you're joking. Didn't I tell you?"
"No."
"And you know all about it already?" He looked at her curiously for a moment.

"Can't I have another one, Rose Girl?"

ment. "Did you know that I said I was going to leave the Moonstone?"
"Why?"
"For the same reason that I can't now—you. Red and Billy Winthrop and I don't own a cent's worth of the claim now. I don't even own what's in the bank. All I got is Yuma."
"You gave Yuma to me, Collie."
"I saw did. I haven't even her. But I've got you. Oh, Louise, I can't believe it! I could just about. Can't I have another one, Rose Girl?"
"Must I teach you not to ask?" said Louise.
Collie took her other meaning as she made a little mouth at him. "Not after this," he said and gave up proof that he meant it.
"More than a whole carload of gold?" she asked, gazing at him.
"You know that too?"
"Collie!"
"What is it?"
"Proclaim that you won't speak to any one about the claim or the desert or my father until I say you may."
"Of course I promise."
"Nor about ourselves until I tell you to."
"Never—if it will make you happy."
(HE CONTINUES.)

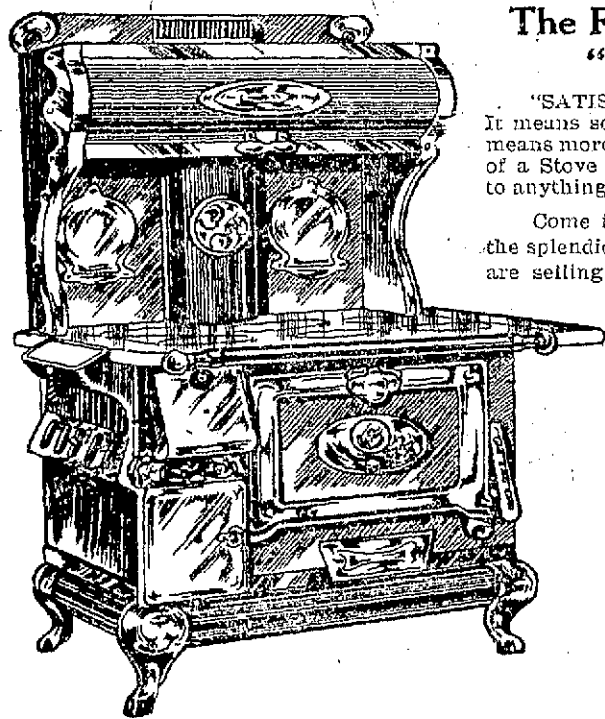

MEETING TROUBLE.
No matter what cares, anxieties or sorrows may vex or sadden you, do not prove yourself a weakling by going down before them, but show yourself noble in rising above them and molding them to life's purpose. To give up the battle because of injustice or ingratitude or wrongdoing at the hands of others is not manly. Do your duty, fight on, and trust in God.

Egg Sauce.
Make a white sauce from a cupful of rich milk thickened steadily with a tablespoonful of butter and four Season with paprika and salt and add a hard boiled egg chopped fine. This is especially good with boiled codfish.

Values Speak Louder Than Words

The goods on our display floors and the price tags they bear constitute the strongest appeal we can make to your intelligence. This announcement is just a reminder that the people who make mistakes and suffer regrets are those who do things too hastily, whilst those who investigate—who make impartial comparisons—invariably get the best of it. There could not be more convincing proof of this fact than is furnished by the hundreds of satisfied customers of ours in and around Connelville who so enthusiastically testify—

"YOU'LL DO BETTER AT THE RAPPORT-FEATHERMAN COMPANY"

The Range That Gives "Satisfaction"

"SATISFACTION" is a great word. It means so much to you and it, perhaps means more when applied to the purchase of a Stove or Range than when applied to anything else in your home.

Come in and examine the splendid range that we $29.75 are selling at only.

When you have convinced yourself that there's no such Range for the money in Connelville, then remember that you can get it without feeling the cost on our very easy terms of only—

NEWS NOTES ABOUT HAPPENINGS IN THE BUSY MILL TOWN

Mrs. Howard Miner Gives Shower for Her Sister, a Recent Bride.

TWO H. S. CLASSES ORGANIZE

Mrs. Mary Loucks and Mrs. J. H. Smith are chosen as members of the Finance Committee of the Greensburg Home for the Aged; Personal Notes.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTTSBURGH, Oct. 20.—Mrs. Howard Miner gave a shower for her sister, Mrs. Russell Cannon, last evening at her home in Grant street. Mrs. Cannon was formerly Miss Ivy Siberts and has just returned from a wedding trip. Many beautiful presents were received. Guests were present from Connelville, Mount Pleasant, Iron Bridge and this place. Refreshments were served.

BIBLE CLASS MEETS.
Mrs. J. E. Rank entertained the Ladies' Bible Class of the United Brethren Church at the parsonage last evening. There was a very good attendance. The meeting was solely for business purposes and the regular routine was gone through with.

CHOSEN ON COMMITTEE.
Mrs. Mary Loucks and Mrs. J. H. Smith are two of the Scottsdale ladies that have been named on the finance committee for the home for the aged in Greensburg.

CLASSES ORGANIZE.
The senior and junior classes of the high school have organized for the coming year with the following officers: Senior, president, Valley Yuhner; vice president, Hannah Kelly; secretary, Celeste Loucks; treasurer, Gertrude Parker. The officers for the junior class are, president, Marie Wagonman; vice president, Clyde Parker; secretary, Nellie Woolly; treasurer, Nellie Wagonman.

FANCY WORK PARTY.
Mrs. H. R. Francis on Wednesday afternoon entertained a number of her friends from the Afternoon Club with fancy work at her home here. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant afternoon spent.

GIVE ROUND ROBIN.
Mrs. A. C. Shidaway was hostess at a round robin to the ladies of the United Brethren Church at her home west of town on Wednesday afternoon. The affair was for the benefit of the Woman's Missionary Society.

FOURTEEN IS OFF.
A number of persons who work in Mount Pleasant and points between Mount Pleasant and Scottsdale were forced to be idle for the day on account of there being no power and they were unable to get to work. Some were able to get to work at the noon hour. During the morning there were no electric lights and all places using motors for power were idle.

How to stop dandruff and loss of hair with Resinol

Here is a simple, inexpensive treatment that will generally stop dandruff and scalp itching, and keep the hair thick, live and lustrous:

At night, spread the hair apart and rub a little Resinol thoroughly into the scalp, with the tip of the finger. Repeat this until the whole scalp has been treated. Next morning, shampoo thoroughly with Resinol Soap and hot water. Work the cream Resinol Lather well into the scalp. Repeat with gradually cooler water, the last water being cold. All dandruff will be washed away and the hair will grow and shine.

WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm, and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headache, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

PRITTSVILLE.

PRITTSVILLE, Oct. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Yates of Connelville, and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell K. Yates and daughter, Genevieve of Latrobe, were here a short while Saturday visiting the family of the former's brother-in-law, Leo Roy Kelly. The party were returning in their automobile from a week's visit with their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Mardis.

Miss Sadie Freed has returned from her two weeks' vacation spent at Dayton, Ohio, with friends.

Mrs. Ernest K. Richey and daughter, Gladys, and son, Joseph E. Richey, Jr., spent Wednesday and Thursday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Roy Kelly.

Mrs. George Morris and family of Punxsutawney, and Mrs. Harry Freed and daughter, Charlotte of Scottsdale, were the guests here Wednesday of their sister, Mrs. Charles Mardis. Mrs. Morris is spending the week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Ridenour.

SAGINAW, Oct. 19.—Charles E. Hughes delivered two speeches here and at Bay City today before audiences that packed the halls where he spoke.

ASTHMA SUFFERERS.
Write today, I will tell you, free of charge, of a simple home treatment for asthma which cured me after physicians and change of climate failed. I am so grateful for my present good health, after years of suffering, that I want everyone to know of this wonderful treatment. Mrs. Nellie Evans, 336 P-O, Des Moines, Iowa.—Adv.

THIS TROTTER FOR THE FIRST COLD DAY

SETTING THE PACE.
Durable navy serge cut with long straight lines, a good walking length for the skirt and a hip smartly embroidered in metal threads, is featured for this suit. Nothing could be more modish than the deep cuffs and collar of gray squirrel. The wide sailor is navy velvet.

CONQUERS RHEUMATISM IN A VERY FEW DAYS

It is an established fact that one-half teaspoonful of Rheuma taken once a day has driven the pain and agony from thousands of racked, crippled and despairing rheumatics during the last five years.

Powerful and sure; quick acting, yet harmless; Rheuma gives blessed relief almost at once. The magic name has reached every hamlet in the land and there is hardly a druggist anywhere who cannot tell you of almost marvelous cures.

If you are tortured with rheumatism or sciatica, you can get a bottle of Rheuma from A. A. Clarke or any druggist for not more than 50 cents, with the understanding that if it does not completely drive rheumatic poisons from your system—money back.—Adv.

WARNING

Beware of Unscrupulous Imitators.

MANUEL MERVIS and the Henry Saville Company solemnly pledge themselves to the ridiculous prices quoted in this advertisement. But ONLY AS LONG AS THE VARIOUS LOTS LAST. In order to avoid disappointment you are respectfully requested to come when the doors are open, as the management will not be responsible if you do not secure the great advertised bargain if you delay your buying. Kindly note that the doors will be open at 9 A. M. and that no goods will be sold before that hour.

A Price-Killing Greater Than Your Fondest Dreams Could Possibly Imagine.

A FINAL

31 Years of Honorable and Successful Business Life in Connellsville

Mr. S. M. Goodman started in business in 1885 in the stand now occupied by Doyle's Cigar Store. For the past 21 years he has occupied this store, 134 N. Pittsburg street, formerly known as the Dunn Dry Goods Store. In this long and honorable career The Goodman Store has gained a reputation far and wide for its integrity and square dealings and the dependability of its merchandise. In retiring he wishes to thank his many thousands of loyal patrons and commends Mr. Manuel Mervis as a most worthy successor.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

Handling only the highest class and dependable lines of merchandise, the Goodman Store has been noted for its clear-cut methods, free from all catch-penny business tricks. Mr. Mervis was indeed fortunate in procuring at practically his own figures this magnificent stock. But the stock must be paid for and the only avenue left open to him is to turn more than half of it into cash at once. Past reputation and policies will be firmly maintained, except where it means better merchandise or improved service.

The Entire Big Stock Bought by Manuel Mervis and Now in the Hands of the Henry Saville Co.,
To Be Wiped Out in 14 Days

WIND-UP $17,000.00 Worth of Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Caps and Furnishings to Be Thrown Into the Lap of the Community at a Fraction of the Manufacturers' Cost.

Thousands of Dollars' Worth of the Highest Grade Brands of Merchandise Ruthlessly Slaughtered.

Stock includes such famous makes of men's and boys' clothing as L. System, Schloss Bros., Alco, Collegian and Rochester brands, Lion Brand Shirts and Collars, etc., etc., at prices less than the actual cost to produce. Only a few prices listed here on account of limited space. Hundreds of more bargains at the store marked in plain figures and right on display in plain view of the buying public.

WE MUST DO IT!

We do not stop to consider where the loss comes in. We must get it into your hands. The chance of buying a dollar's worth for 44c has never come to you before nor is it likely that it ever will again. The stock is clean, new, bright and magnificent. There is not an atom of soiled back-season goods. We must sell this out. We have contracted to do it. It must go. It shall go if the persuading power of smashed and shattered values have any effect upon you. This is the most astounding event that has ever been heard in the business circles of Connellsville. Now we are in for it, and there is no excuse but that the entire stock must simply fly out of our possession into yours in double quick time.

FREE CAR FARE TO SALE

Free street car fare on all purchases of $2.50. Free railroad fare on all purchases of $10 or over.

Here are a Few of the Thousands of Remarkable Values at the Store. Even More Sensational Than These Not Advertised on Account of Space.

WANTED AT ONCE

10 Salesmen, 10 Salesladies, 5 Wrappers and 2 Cashiers. Apply immediately in person at store.

Come and See for Yourself

Don't buy a dollar's worth of goods anywhere until you see these incredibly shattered values—we don't blame you for not believing them until you see them for yourselves. You can't disbelieve the evidence of your own eyes! We promise you faithfully that a $5 bill at this sale will give you merchandise in value from $10 to $20—and then some, in a good many cases.

"THE UNDERWORLD"—The second chapter of "The Grip of Evil," Pallio's masterplot in 14 chapters will be shown here today. Deals with the adventures of John Burton, transported from state worker to 10th Lord Castleton, as he seeks an answer to the question, "Is Humanity in the Grip of Evil?" "A Mountain Tragedy," a two reel Bison drama with Marjorie Ellison and Leo Rae in the leads. It is a strong drama of the outdoors. "Borrowed Plumes," a two reel comedy with Carter DeHaven. He takes the part of a girl in this episode. Tomorrow House Peters appears in the five reel world drama, "The Rail Rider." It is a railroad story that will make your nerves quiver and make you gasp and sigh.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"COMMON GROUND"—Starring Marie Doro, the celebrated artist on the stage and screen, is today's feature attraction. "The Common Ground" is a thrilling drama of social conditions written especially for the Paramount program. It shows the mental weakness and spiritual awakening through love of a child of the slums, employed in an artificial flower factory. In the picture Marie Doro is known as "The Kid," an expert slipper-on, in a paper flower factory. Brought up in misery and equator of the slums, she has procured for herself a huge velvet hat which she trimmed with lace, flowers, fur and a large waving plume. The hat is a monstrosity but she loves it. None of the other children possesses a hat of such magnitude and grandeur. The kid is removed from her slum environment and placed in charge of a sincere and competent middle-aged woman, who by

GUARD YOUR CHILDREN AGAINST DISEASE

Infantile paralysis, scarlet fever, diphtheria, and other dreaded diseases of children can be guarded against. Medical and health authorities everywhere advise gargling and spraying of the nose and throat whenever a child shows symptoms of having "a cold" or whenever epidemics are prevalent in the neighborhood. The gargling and spraying should be done with a safe and powerful antiseptic. Physicians find some difficulty in recommending one which is powerful enough and yet can safely be kept where children are likely to get hold of it. Since the discovery of Hyclorite, this difficulty has been overcome. Five to ten drops of Hyclorite in a glass of water have given unsurpassed results as a spray and gargle in places where epidemics of infantile paralysis and scarlet fever occurred and in winter and spring when diphtheria is prevalent. Hyclorite is a solution of sodium hypochlorite. A U. S. Government report has been published showing that 130 antiseptics were recently tested in military hospitals of Europe and sodium hypochlorite is declared by the surgeons to be the most efficient and economical of them all.

Although many times more powerful than the harmful antiseptics which contain poison, acid, mercury, or dangerous preservatives, Hyclorite is even safer than the weak and ineffective peroxides. It is clean, clear and harmless—but powerful. It is excellent for burns, is unsurpassed for cuts and wounds, as a mouth wash and as a general family antiseptic. Any druggist can supply you with Hyclorite in 25 and 50 cent bottles. General Laboratories, Madison, Wisconsin.

her careful training instills into the heart and mind of the child the elements of refinement and simplicity. William C. De Mille, who completed the direction of the photoplay went into park and slum districts of Los Angeles for "extras," and rounded up a score or more of the park bench habitués. With the prospect of earning a few dollars for their time and trouble, the extras entered enthusiastically upon the work of appearing in some of the scenes for the production. Tomorrow, Frank Keenan will be featured in "The Thoroughbred." Monday, Harold Lockwood and Max Allison will appear in "Look 44."

W. & J. TO PLAY

Coach Metzger Prepares Boys for Yale Game; Meet Westminster Saturday. WASHINGTON, Pa., Oct. 20.—While Washington & Jefferson team is in the midst of the onerous preparation for the Yale game of October 23, the coaches are not forgetful of the contest on the home field tomorrow with Westminster, a team that is met almost annually, and one that in spite of previous records and failures, always manages to shape up sufficiently to give the Red and Black a stiff encounter. While the details administered to the New Westminster crowd in the only two games played by Westminster this year do not impress with any conception of gridiron strength on the part of the United Presbyterians, nevertheless W. & J. is expecting no sidetrack.

W. & J. will again be fortunate tomorrow in holding almost undisputed sway in the major college football field in this district. Pitt is again away from home playing at Syracuse and the followers of the game from every district are looked for there, particularly since it will be the final appearance of W. & J. before a home crowd previous to its championship clash with Yale. W. & J. is leaving no stone unturned to find out just how strong the Yale team is. Last Saturday Assistant Coach Westchester was a spectator at the Yale-Lehigh game and secured valuable pointers. Today Head Coach Metzger and Official Scout Dave Morrow will see the game between Yale and Virginia Polytechnic Institute.
